

“Better Together”

2017 NCRAAO/KCAA Conference

Kansas will host the 2017 NCRAAO conference in Wichita, KS, with a theme of “Better Together”. Conference dates are Sunday, June 18-Thursday, June 22. Hosting NCRAAO is always a great time and makes for a wonderful conference. There is a tentative agenda on the KCAA website. Also, the link to reserve hotel rooms is on the KCAA website or you can contact the Marriott at:

Wichita Marriott
9100 Corporate Hills Drive
Wichita, Kansas 67207
Phone: 1-316-651-0333
Toll-free: 1-800-610-0673
The room rate is $125 plus tax and includes a hot breakfast

Motivational Speaker, Bill Cordes aka The YOGOWYPI Guy will kick off our event.

Education sessions have been decided and there are many good sessions to choose from (see attached list)

KIOGA (Kansas Independent Oil & Gas Association) will have a presentation & demonstrations of various pieces of oil field equipment in the parking lot on Monday.

We will be spending one evening at the Old Cowtown Museum. Another evening will include a silent auction for items donated from all the participating states. We also welcome back the band HomeBrew to entertain us. Those of you that attended the 2016 conference will remember this group!

There will be a golf tournament Monday morning. For those of you that don't golf, you can go to the Fun Center to play mini-golf and ride go-carts and bumper boats.

Sand Creek Station golf course just outside Newton, Kansas, is a links-style 18-hole public golf course with a bent grass playing surface designed by architect Jeff Brauer. Unique features include an active railway running through the course, Sand Creek bordering four holes, and eleven custom ponds. A wooden cart bridge spans Sand Creek, and a concrete underpass allows carts to travel under the Burlington Northern Santa Fe railroad tracks.
